Change to Management

Global Health announces the end today of the contract under which Paul Reining provided CFO-related consulting services. Paul joined Global Health in a consulting capacity to assist with the structuring of an effective finance team and processes. He has achieved this and provided Global Health with an appropriate structure and discipline to underpin the ongoing performance of the finance team.

The finance team will report to Chief Operating Officer, Stuart Cronin following Paul's departure.

We wish to thank Paul for the exemplary guidance he has provided to the company and wish him well in his next endeavours.
